CASE NUMBER: 6:18CR60014-001

SUPERVISED RELEASEUpon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of: ten (10) years.*MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: RANDALL MORRIS
CASE NUMBER: 6:18CR60014-001

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT: RANDALL MORRIS
CASE NUMBER: 6:18CR60014-001

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall submit his person, residence, and/or vehicle(s), papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to searches which may be conducted at the request of the United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner based upon reasonable suspicion of a violation of any conditions of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation.
2. The defendant shall participate in a mental health program specifically related to sexual offender therapy. The defendant shall enter, cooperate, and complete said program, if recommended by the service provider, and approved and directed by the United States Probation Officer. He shall abide by all policies and procedures of the sex offender program. During the course of sexual offender treatment, the defendant shall be subject to periodic and random polygraph examinations administered by the sex offender contractor or their designee.
3. The defendant shall have no unsupervised contact with minors. If there is a concern about the contact, then the defendant shall obtain approval from the United States Probation Office before any such contact.
4. Except for the purposes of employment, the defendant shall not possess, use, or have access to a computer or any other electronic device that has Internet or photography capabilities, without prior advance notice and approval of the United States Probation Office. Reasonable requests by the defendant for such approval should not be denied, provided that the defendant allows the U.S. Probation Office to install Internet-monitoring software, the defendant pays for the software, and defendant submits to random searches of his computers, electronic devices, and peripherals.
5. The defendant shall submit to inpatient or outpatient substance abuse testing, evaluation, counseling, testing, and/or treatment, as deemed necessary and as directed by the United States Probation Office.
6. The defendant shall have no contact with the victims (including letters, communication devices, audio or visual devices, visits, or any other contact through a third party) without prior written consent of the United States Probation Office.
7. The defendant shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer marijuana or obtain or possess a medical marijuana card or prescription. If the defendant is currently in possession of a medical marijuana card, he will turn it over immediately to the probation office.
